Create an RBdigital Account

You can create an RBdigital account directly from the RBdigital app or from the Illinois Heartland Library System’s RBdigital website.

To create an RBdigital account directly from the app:

- Download the RBdigital app from your device’s app store.
- Click on the New to RBdigital? Register Now link and follow the prompts.
  - Choose Country: Click on the white Tap and Scroll icon, select USA from the scrolling menu, and then click on the red Choose State icon.
  - Choose State: Click on the white Tap and Scroll icon, select Illinois from the scrolling menu, and then click on the red Choose Library icon.
  - Choose Library: Click on the white Tap and Search icon. From here you can either type Hayner Public Library into the search box or scroll to Illinois Heartland Library System (IHLS) in the scrolling menu and then select Hayner Public Library from the list of participating IHLS member libraries. Click on the red Create Account icon.
- Enter your library card number into the white Enter library card number box. Your library card number can be found on the back of your Hayner Library card.
- Create a username for your RBdigital account by entering any username you wish to use into the white Create username box.
- Create a password for your RBdigital account by entering any password you wish to use into the white Create password box. There is no alphanumeric or minimum length requirement for the password.
- Confirm your password by retyping it into the white Confirm password box.
- Type your first name into the white Enter first name box.
- Type your last name into the white Enter last name box.
- Type your email address into the white Enter email box.
- Confirm your email address by retyping it into the white Confirm email box.
- Type your 5-digit zip code into the white Enter postal code box.
- Click the checkbox in front of the I accept the Terms of Service and Privacy links and then click on the red Register icon.

To create an RBdigital account from the Illinois Heartland Library System’s RBdigital website:

- Click on the Register link located in the upper right corner of the page.
- A pop-up screen will appear: Enter the required information into the boxes on the screen. Note: You will need to enter your Hayner Library card number (found on the back of your Hayner Library card). You can create your own username and password. There is no alphanumeric or minimum length requirement for the password.
• Be sure to click the checkbox in front of the I accept the Terms of Service and Privacy Policy links and then click on the red Register icon.

Once you have created your account, you will be able to access RBdigital content from your tablet, smart phone, laptop, desktop, and most mobile devices.

Note: Hayner Library staff does not have access to your RBdigital username, password, or account. We are unable to tell you what your password or username is once you have established your account. It is recommended that you make note of this information should you need to access it at a later date.

Viewing Your Account Options

Both the RBdigital app and website allow patrons to view their account options in the same way:

• Click on the menu icon in the upper left corner of the website/app:

  From here you can view:
  • The e-audiobook and e-magazine titles available in RBdigital.
  • The items currently checked out to your account.
  • My Account, which lists your holds, history, profile, settings, wishlist, etc.
  • The Help icon, which lists up-to-date instructions, information, FAQs, and troubleshooting advice.
